CONSERVATION

If I Could Change Two Things ...

- Learn to see us as helping people do what they want to do, instead of the other way around
- Learn to imagine why someone might say YES before we ask them

David Allen | Development for Conservation LLC

Frames of Reference

- “Major” describes the decision to give, not the person making it.
- Major Gift Fundraising or Donor Development is the most important fundraising you can do.

David Allen | Development for Conservation LLC

Four Conditions for Success

1. Donors
2. Leadership
3. "Case" Materials that Match Donor Passions
4. Solid Plan

David Allen | Development for Conservation LLC

Is it Feasible?

- The Goal: Test 120% of What You Need
- Can I name Five donors whom we can credibly ask for 25-40% of the Goal - each?
- Can we expect at least 10% to come from the Board?
- The Most X 20 Test

David Allen | Development for Conservation LLC

About Feasibility Studies

- Not recommended for campaigns less than $500,000; always recommended for campaigns more than $1 MM
- Cost: $25,000-$40,000 (150-250 hours work)
- Internal capacity audit
- External test of core messaging (case) and donor willingness to make gifts
- Returns an opinion on whether the campaign as envisioned is “feasible”

David Allen | Development for Conservation LLC

Reasons to do a Feasibility Study

- Prepares donors
- Lends confidence to solicitors
- Gathers and delivers objective feedback for the organization
- Tests feasibility of messaging and goals

The Problem

- Land is Expensive
- Conservation is even more expensive than the land
- Most land trusts don't have TIME to raise the money in between contract and closing

David Allen | Development for Conservation LLC

Tried & True Solutions

- Building an “Opportunity” Fund
 - Could drive up the asking price of the land
 - Sets up a cycle of asking for intangible projects
- Securing a LOAN
 - Incurs carrying costs

“What you do makes a difference, and you have to decide what kind of difference you want to make.”

before December,
can we come to you
for a gift of $100,000?”*

LEGACY MATCH CAMPAIGN

David Allen | Development for Conservation LLC

An estimated $68 Trillion will transfer from Boomers to Gen-Xers and Millennials between now and 2030

Source: Forbes

Essential Concepts

- If you are not actively involved building major gift and planned gift development programs right NOW, you will miss out on some or all of this transfer.

Legacy Match Campaigns – the Essence

- Member/donor names the land trust in their will
- Member/donor notifies the land trust in writing that the land trust has been named in their will
- $500 is released from the matching grant

David Allen | Development for Conservation LLC

Program Considerations

- Organized way to track legacy donors
- Web page with basic, downloadable information
- Bequest Distribution Policy
- Point person to field questions

David Allen | Development for Conservation LLC

Campaign Considerations

- Securing the matching grant(s)
- Determining the campaign specifics
- Marketing the campaign
- Orderly communication with matching gift donors – including the possibility of thank you notes

David Allen | Development for Conservation LLC

Benefits to the Matcher

- Unbelievably leveraged giving
 - Average bequest donation is around $60,000
 - A campaign that generates 20 planned gift notifications represents about $1.2 million
 - Not bad for a $10,000 grant
- A way to help NOW and help in the future

David Allen | Development for Conservation LLC

Benefits to the Land Trust

- Cash for use this year
- Knowledge of bequest commitments
- Opportunities to have different conversations with donors (life estates, appreciated assets, life insurance, annuities, and so on)
- Important new way to market planned giving

FUNDRAISING EVENTS

David Allen | Development for Conservation LLC

Fundraising Events
Examples

- Galas
- Runs, walks, hikes, bikes, triathlons
- Golf tournaments
- Rummage Sales

Reasons NOT to do

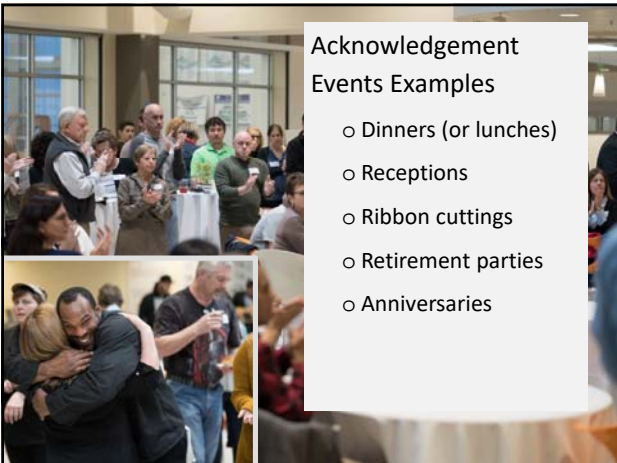

- FR Events do not raise enough money
- Difficult to scale
- Competition
- Some events “run their course”
- Inherently transactional

Reasons NOT to do

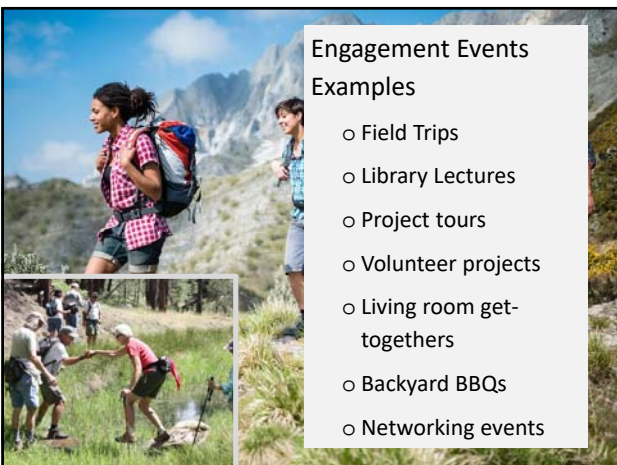

- Distracts Board and staff from activities that might raise more money (opportunity cost)
- Leaves donors feeling like they have “contributed”

Acknowledgement Events Examples

- Dinners (or lunches)
- Receptions
- Ribbon cuttings
- Retirement parties
- Anniversaries

Engagement Events Examples

- Field Trips
- Library Lectures
- Project tours
- Volunteer projects
- Living room get-togethers
- Backyard BBQs
- Networking events

Helpful Best Practices for All Events

- Have a singular event GOAL or purpose
- Write down what you expect to happen
- Measure your results (evaluate) against what you expected - Take Board participation out
- Board members attend as Ambassadors and Hosts - and report back
- Photograph the event
- Follow-up

REVIEW

David Allen | Development for Conservation LLC

Mistakes We Make

- Planning from behind
- Defining major gifts by dollar amount
- Failure to ask
- Measuring events by how many show up
- Confusing exposure with engagement
- Substituting electronic contact for more personal contact

David Allen | Development for Conservation LLC

4 Paradigm Shifts

1. Fundraising is more about discovery than about selling
2. Focus on the NET
3. Major describes the decision, not the person
4. Plan for WHY a person might say YES, instead of imagining all the reasons they might say No

David Allen | Development for Conservation LLC

Review

- Major Gift Fundraising is the most important fundraising you can do
- Step by Step instructions
 - Need an Introduction
 - Learn (Discover) WHY they give and feed that
 - Involve - tangible, bring them to the land
 - Invest

David Allen | Development for Conservation LLC

Major Gift Fundraising

Cultivating, soliciting, and stewarding INDIVIDUAL donors - treating them as individuals - is the primary differentiation between major gift fundraising and all other fundraising.

EXTENDED Q&A

David Allen | Development for Conservation LLC

DAVID ALLEN

I am a non-profit fundraising consultant. I work with nonprofit boards and staff to help them learn how to be better leaders and advocates. I work almost exclusively with conservation organizations because that is where my heart is.

My background includes 30 years working in membership fundraising, major gift development, communications, and marketing. I worked for about half that time for Nature Conservancy (TNC) chapters in Oregon, Texas, and Wisconsin. In addition to my duties for the individual chapters, I served TNC as an internal fundraising consultant and major gift development trainer.

In 2000, I served as the vice-president of operations for the Wisconsin-based, international conservation organization Sand County Foundation, a position I held through mid-2009.

Gathering Waters Conservancy, a land trust service agency based in Wisconsin, called me in 2004 to ask whether I would be interested in teaching a seminar for Wisconsin land trusts on major donor development. From 2004, then, through 2009, I consulted on a nights and weekends basis with just a few clients each year.

In March of 2009, I launched my consulting business full-time using the name Development for Conservation.

Also in 2009, I partnered with Nancy Moore to form Conservation Consulting Group. Together we help land trusts by providing needs assessment, strategic planning, and leadership coaching services.

I consider myself a strategic thinker, problem solver, facilitator, educator, and program developer who brings a particular passion for conservation and the environment.
